A Taste of Hawaii is a tropical themed fundraising gala with a chic ambiance to benefit the Kurt Suzuki Family Foundation. MLB All-Star, Kurt Suzuki in partnership with celebrity chef, Alan Wong from the Food Network, will host an evening of fine culinary experiences and live entertainment. A Taste of Hawaii will bring local celebrity chefs and various professional athletes together for an evening of first class entertainment. Alan Wong and four celebrity chefs will host their own gourmet food stations each paired with a Major League Baseball player or professional athlete to serve our guests throughout the evening.

PURPOSE:

A Taste of Hawaii charity event will help raise funds for the Kapi'olani Medical Center, Pediatric Cancer Division. Kapi'olani Medical Center remains steadfast in their promise to educate the pediatricians for the next generation, participate actively in scientific discovery and improvement, partner and collaborate with all entities involved in pediatric services and above all, care for the children in the State of Hawaii. A Taste of Hawaii charity event will also support the National Kidney Foundation. Kidney disease is very prevalent in these areas along with a lack of basic supplies and teaching materials supporting the knowledge of prevention and maintenance of the disease. The monies raised will make a tremendous impact on the lives of those affected with Kidney disease including Kurt's father Warren Suzuki, who is a stage 4 kidney cancer survivor and has been in remission for 9 years and Renee's sister, Tricia Vignery battles with a chronic kidney disease, FSGS Nephrotic Syndrome, but has been in remission for 4 years.
